

GRASS CUTTING IN CEMETERIES

Purpose of the Report and Recommendation

To consider a request from CBC to contribute to the maintenance of Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries and to consider the recommendation in paragraph 2.1

1.0 INTRODUCTION

- 1.1 At an Extraordinary Council Meeting on 8th October 2018 the Council resolved that 2 extra grass cuts be funded for Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries in 2018/2019 at a cost of £7,000 and that 4 extra cuts be funded for Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries in 2019/2020 costing £15,000.
- 1.2 This has resulted in great improvements to and public satisfaction with the cemeteries. The improvements can be seen in the photographs attached to the Park and Open Spaces Manager's Report at Appendix 1.
- 1.3 There will be no charge for the pitches for the stalls (same as last time) and the stallholders provide their own stalls.
- 1.3 A request has been received from Copeland Borough Council (see Park and Open Spaces Manager's Report at Appendix 1) for this arrangement to continue and has asked if the Town Council will contribute £15,450 in 2020/2021 for the extra 4 grass cuts in Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries. If agreed this would need to be factored into the Budget for 2020/2021.
- 1.4 The Council has power to contribute towards the maintenance of cemeteries under the Local Cemeteries Order 1977.

2.0 RECOMMENDATION

- 2.1 That the Council considers making a contribution to CBC to provide for 4 extra grass cuts in Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries in 2020/2021 at a cost of £15,450 which if agreed would be factored into the Budget for 22020/2021.

Whitehaven Cemetery Maintenance – August 2019

This report provides an update on grass cutting and other maintenance/improvements at Whitehaven Cemetery in 2019

Background

- In 2018 the Elected Mayor of Copeland, Mike Starkie, held two public meetings in response to complaints received about the standards of grass cutting at Whitehaven Cemetery and damages to memorabilia on graves
- At these meetings the Mayor and Officers listened carefully to concerns raised by residents and the Parks & Open Spaces Manager explained the resources available for grass cutting and how this work was delivered by the team
- CBC committed to reviewing its operations and to implement a range of improvements to address the concerns raised
- Concerns raised by the public were discussed with the Mayor of Whitehaven during regular partnership working meetings between Copeland Borough Council and Whitehaven Town Council. WTC agreed to work in partnership with CBC to help address some of the concerns by contributing funding for additional grass cuts and grass cutting equipment
- CBC committed to continue its work to refresh the Council's Management Rules for Cemeteries with the aim of producing clearer guidance on the personalisation of graves

Improvements Implemented in 2019

- Two on-site Gardeners dedicated to grass cutting works were assigned to Whitehaven & Hensingham cemeteries. Their work is supported by the wider Parks team when required provides a more focussed approach to this task
- On-site Gardeners able to respond to customer enquiries
- Investment in grass cutting machinery using funding from WTC which has proved to be valuable additional assets to boost the team's resources
- Increased grass cutting frequency from 3 weekly to fortnightly at Whitehaven and Hensingham Cemeteries using funding from WTC
- Reduced volumes of grass clippings achieved through more frequent cutting
- Winter / Spring maintenance to control vegetation around perimeter of the open cemetery
- Overall improved appearance with greater public satisfaction and reduced complaints
- Refreshed management rules for cemeteries approved by CBC with clearer guidance on personalisation of graves
- New Public Spaces Protection Orders requiring all dogs to be on leads when in cemeteries

Other Planned Improvements for 2019/20

- Winter works programme to continue management of vegetation, shrubs and trees
- New signage to display management rules and service contact details
- On-site staff presence to promote the approved management rules for cemeteries
- Seek continued funding support from WTC to maintain current frequency of grass cutting
- Review staffing arrangements to continue approach of dedicated staff within Whitehaven and Hensingham cemeteries

Resources Required for 2019/20 and beyond

- Continued funding to maintain grass cutting at fortnightly grass cutting frequency (April – Sept): £15,450

TIME SENSITIVE - 90 Day Consultation period end date: 28 October 2019

Dear Chief Planning Officer,

Further to our previous letter, we are writing to you as part of a formal consultation process regarding our current programme of intended public payphone removals. This letter formally starts our consultation with you and the local community.

There are currently 35 public payphones in your area which have been identified and proposed for removal by BT under the 90-day consultation process and details of these payphones are shown below.

To ensure that the local community are fully informed, we have placed consultation notices on the relevant payphones, and a sample notice is enclosed. We have also included the date we posted these notices on the payphones. The consultation period will close on 28 October 2019. Unless you contact us to agree otherwise, responses received after this date will not be accepted.

This consultation process gives your local communities the opportunity to adopt a traditional red 'heritage' phone box and make them an asset that local people can enjoy. It's really simple to do and it costs just £1 - <http://bt.com/adopt>

Overall use of payphones has declined by over 90 per cent in the last decade and the need to provide payphones for use in emergency situations is diminishing all the time, with at least 98 per cent of the UK having either 3G or 4G coverage. This is important because as long as there is network coverage, it's now possible to call the emergency services, even when there is no credit or no coverage from your own mobile provider.

You may also want to consider the recent Ofcom affordability report which found that most people do not view payphones as essential for most consumers in most circumstances -

http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/research/affordability/affordability_report.pdf

On the 14th March 2006 the Office of Communications (Ofcom) published a statement following their 2005 review of universal service in the Telecommunications market, which includes a requirement for payphone provision to meet reasonable needs. Part of that statement amended our obligations with regard to the removal of payphone service

https://www.ofcom.org.uk/data/assets/pdf_file/0021/34266/statement.pdf

As stated in Ofcom's 2005 review, it is the responsibility of the local authority to initiate its own consultation process to canvas the views of the local community. They would normally expect these consultations to involve other public organisations such as the Parish or Community councils and work within the terms of the Communications Act 2003. This means that you must be able to objectively justify your decisions.

Full guidance on the removal process can be viewed at:

<http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/consultations/uso/statement/removals.pdf> and a summary is available at:

http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/consultations/uso/statement/removing_callboxes.pdf

The guidance also details the appeals process we must follow in case of unreasonable objections.

What you need to do next

Please complete and return the attached annex with your decision on each payphone.

If the decision is that the local community wish to 'adopt', please provide their contact details and we'll do the rest.

If you wish to 'object', you'll need to complete the last column with your reasons, having reviewed all of the factors set out in Annex 1 of Ofcom's guidance (see link above), and the information sent to you in our previous letter.

If the information is incomplete for any payphone in the list, then we'll assume you have no objection to its removal and also that you do not wish to adopt it.

The best way to respond to us is by email at btp.authorisation.team@bt.com. Please retain proof that the email was sent or apply a read receipt. If you would prefer to respond by post please use the following address and allow at least two days for postal delivery:

Jane Rumble

Director Consumer Policy

publiccallboxes@ofcom.org.uk

Dear Sir/Madam,

Public call box removals

BT is currently engaged in a round of public call box removals and may be contacting you to seek your views, in accordance with regulatory obligations imposed by Ofcom. This letter gives more information about your role as a relevant local authority under those obligations and some factors you may wish to consider in your response.

Under Universal Service obligations set by Ofcom, BT must provide public call boxes in order to meet the reasonable needs of end-users in terms of geographical coverage, the number of public call boxes and the quality of call box services.

A public call box is a public pay telephone which is permanently installed on public land and to which the public has access at all times. This definition excludes many public pay telephones in locations such as stations.

If BT proposes to remove the last public call box at a site, it must notify the relevant local authority, and it cannot remove the box if the local authority objects in writing within 90 days (the 'local veto'). A site is defined as any area within a walking distance of 400 metres from that public call box. This means that a box could be nearer than 400 metres away as the crow flies, but not easily accessible because of an obstacle such as a railway line.

The process for removal of such public call boxes is set out in a Direction and Guidance published by Ofcom. We are writing to draw your attention to the Direction and Guidance and to respond to some questions that have been raised with us.

Direction: <http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/consultations/uso/statement/callboxdirection.pdf>

Guidance: <http://stakeholders.ofcom.org.uk/binaries/consultations/uso/statement/removals.pdf>

Why does BT seek to remove some public call boxes?

Public call box use has been in heavy decline, and 20% of public call boxes have not been used to make a call in the last twelve months. Mobile take-up and coverage are both high - 94% of adults personally use a mobile phone and 98% of premises have 3G/4G coverage. Mobile 'roaming' for emergency calls has been in place since 2009, meaning that where a caller has no signal from their provider, a 999 call will be switched automatically to another provider's network if there is one available.

BT uses its own published criteria (www.bt.com/payphones/removals) when considering which public call boxes to remove. These are intended to ensure that boxes are retained either where they are actively used or where there is a social need for their retention.

BT's 'overriding criteria' for payphone retention are:

- No mobile coverage (from any provider);
- Suicide hotspot;
- Accident blackspot;
- Coastal location.

Its 'reasonable needs' criteria are:

- The public call box in question is the only one within 800 metres;
- There are at least 500 households within 1 kilometre;
- At least 12 calls have been made from the public call box within the previous 12 months.

If a public call box meets any of the overriding criteria or all the reasonable needs criteria, BT has stated that it will not be proposed for removal.

Can a local authority veto the removal of a public call box because it is a local landmark or on 'heritage' grounds?

Ofcom's Guidance sets out matters that local authorities should take into account when making a decision to consent or object to BT's proposal to remove the last box from a site. In particular, at Annex 1 it sets out factors which Ofcom considers relevant to the decision. The Guidance explains that local authorities should refer to these factors and publish the reasons for their decision. BT could challenge a veto that it considers to be inappropriate in the Competition Appeal Tribunal.

BT's Universal Service Obligation applies to the telephone, not the kiosk. It would therefore be inappropriate for a local authority to object to removal of a public call box because it is a local landmark or on 'heritage' grounds. However, BT has a scheme (www.bt.com/adopt) whereby kiosks can be 'adopted' by bodies such as parish councils for £1. The telephone equipment is removed, and the kiosk can then be used for another purpose such as a community book exchange.

Can a local authority veto all public call box removals in its area?

Each public call box should be considered separately. Any local authority objection to removal of a public call box should be supported by clear, objective and proportionate reasons, related to the provision of the communications service at the box in question.

Can Ofcom give us more information about the public call boxes in our area?

Ofcom does not hold details of the locations of public call boxes or individual boxes that BT may be proposing for removal. BT will be able to give you information about the boxes in your area.

Yours faithfully,

Jane Rumble
